

Online Resources for SMART Boards

Teachers Love SMART Boards

<http://www.teacherslovesmartboards.com/>

Here's a search tool that seems to work pretty well. I typed in "jeopardy" and it brought up both PPT templates that can be used with the SMART Board, as well as some templates of jeopardy games created for SMART Notebook software.

The SMART Exchange

<http://exchange.smarttech.com/forum.html?url=/Language.aspx>

You do need to register for an account to use this site, but it's really a depository (probably not the right word to use...) of lessons created by teachers. I was able to search by keyword, subject area and grade level.

Gavin's SMART Board Blog

<http://smartboardchat.blogspot.com/>

This was a cool blog that seems to share a lot of great tips and lesson ideas and templates.

Wichita Public Schools SMART Lessons

<http://technology.usd259.org/resources/whiteboards/smartlessons.htm>

This site shares lessons created by teacher. They are organized by elementary, middle and high school and then further sub-divided by subject.

Lee Summit Schools in Kansas City

<http://its.leesummit.k12.mo.us/smartboard.htm>

This site is basically a list of interactive websites, sites that contain information on SMART Lessons, or links to actual pre-made templates.

Rockingham County Public Schools

<http://www.rockingham.k12.va.us/howto/smartboard/smartboard.htm>

This site has general SMART tips, as well as links to great resources and templates and another section of lessons that were created and shared by the teachers of Rockingham County School District.

Scholastic – SMARTBoard Interactive White Board Lessons and Resources for Teachers

<http://www.scholastic.com/interactivewhiteboards/>

This site has some good examples of lessons to be used with elementary students and links back to the SMART website and some of the SMART resources which are noted above.

Great Sites for Using the SMARTBoard

<http://www.juliethompson.com/SMART.html>

Another great site filled with activities and websites that work well with the SMARTBoard for elementary students.

Math: SMARTBoard Activities

<http://www.emints.org/ethemes/resources/S00001794.shtml>

This site contains links to SMARTBoard Activities and Interactive Websites for Math.

Longwood SMARTBoard Lessons: Longwood Central School District – Middle Island, New York

<http://www.longwood.k12.ny.us/longsmart.html>

Great site which contains SMARTBoard Lessons for elementary (K-3), middle school (4-5), junior high (7-8) and high school (9-12). Lots of great ideas!

Engaging Learners the SMART Board Way

<http://eduscapes.com/sessions/smartboard/#6>

Links to lots and lots of ideas for using SMARTBoards, tips, tutorials, as well as some links to lessons and interactive websites.
